MINUTE ENTRY

Upon review of the court file,

THE COURT NOTES that a child support arrest warrant was issued in this matter on May 15, 2014. Since that time, support payments have posted in full and within the month due through a wage assignment. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED quashing the warrant issued in this case. The quashing of the warrant does not change the obligation to pay child support or child support arrears. The obligee may still take whatever steps are appropriate to ensure the continued payment of any amounts due and owing.

The Child Support Arrest Warrant is electronically quashed by the above-named deputy clerk this date. Confirmation #91427

All parties representing themselves must keep the Court updated with address changes. A form may be downloaded at: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/Self-ServiceCenter>.
